In various fields in specialists foreign fifty partners with cooperation to do indicator being high because of them language to learn has been Demand is high. Modern foreign languages are becoming an important component of professional education in society. Such knowledge people initially school, college, high school, later on in institutions, study the main one that helps to learn a foreign language in courses or independently data sets met with without learning.

PRICIPLES OF COMMON DESCENT

Research in the process English language to teach and of learning famous methods, internet sources were used. Writing the article during the theoretical deductive conclusion release, analysis and synthesis, rationality from principles was used.

DISCUSSION AND RESULTS

Language is the main means of communication, without which the existence and development of human society hard to imagine. In our world today in social relations big changes happening one in the circuit contact information tools (info technologies) of students communicative qualification increase Demand does they are different in the process of interaction with other participants of the dialogue exchange ideas in situations, use language and speech norms correctly is enough. In such conditions, the main purpose of foreign language is communicative ability forming, that is, carrying out interpersonal and intercultural communication in a foreign language demand to increase will be done.

Twentieth of the century to the end come and English in the language the world importance have language status was finally strengthened. Studying it in most schools around the world became mandatory and the teaching methodology developed by leaps and bounds started The reason for the emergence of the first method of independent English language learning has been to courses to go everyone's too opportunity have it's not. Later, many the authors English language of learning efficient program independent respectively to create movement they did but we the most famous to 4 attention let's look.

1. Schechter method

This method of learning English is a classical model "from theory to practice". rather than based on the opposite, more natural system of perception. This is how our mother tongue is very similar to our learning. The author teaches young children how to speak gives an example - after all, no one builds them sentences, situations and parts of speech does not explain the rules. In the same way Igor Yuryevich Shekhter English to learn offer does.

English language of learning modern method essence from that consists of the first from class to the students known one task is placed for example of the interlocutor profession learning From this except all students "etudes" called things they play this on the ground they are different in roles movement they do and they try to solve the problem. The level of language proficiency was about the same since communication takes place between people, between teacher and student in communication appear foreign to be from speech use fear disappears.

2. Pimsler method

Doctor Pol Pimsler not only information perception achieve perhaps him again work developed a special system of thirty-minute lessons designed for release came out Each lesson is told by two people: our compatriot and a native English native speaker. Thanks to this and special memorization technology each student learns hundreds of English words and phrases for each lesson. of the lesson essence speakers by spoken assignments consecutively is to perform.

The undoubted advantages of the technique include its mobility - you desired in the place audio tasks to do can: in a traffic jam when you stand on your way to work, on the subway on your way to a meeting, or before bed when you are in bed. The downside is high-quality pronunciation and knowledge acquisition lack of test will be

3. Dragunkin method

The peculiarity of the system of Alexander Nikolayevich Dragunkin is any in learning a foreign language, the focus is on the native Russian language. English very boldly simple that named author, his roots ancient Russian to the language especially grammar emphasizes that it goes back to the system of time. Dragunkin course students in Russian letters transcription done new the words they learn and grammar constructions not the 12 tenses known to us from school, but past, present, future and their to change is divided.

Alexander Nikolaevich has his own network of schools, in which you can find three types you can master courses: basic, short and conversation. For independent education of a linguist language to learn innovative approach own into received "A Little The book "Leap into English" is offered. Using its system, you can learn English of verbs use easily your understanding from the articles use the rules memorize and sentences to build main principles easy to master possible That's it despite Dragunkin method many negative to the comments has they are pronunciation and theoretical of knowledge enough that it is not criticism does.

4. Petrov's method

Dmitry Petrov says that you can learn English in 16 hours. that's right the author another one there is determines that we Great in Britain born citizen level, we are not talking about mastering the language, but about basic knowledge. His lessons survive the immersion in an English-speaking environment stay your your needs explanation and the answer to understand for enough

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

Summary by doing to say must modern the language to teach more cultured aimed at the formation of the personality, analysis of his speech and new knowledge systematization skills have it is. Innovative methods whole the system is an integral part of modernization. For sure, teachers are the most advanced approaches with dating and later on them combine and own in their work used without education in the system significant to grow reach possible Many organizations use multimedia capabilities to send and receive information is moving to a new level using From computers and other devices use the whole education the success of the process defines.

Education in the process held in training speech skills adequate attention to formation and development of social flexibility need From this except in education each one of the lesson success a lot in terms of training right organize to do depends. Lesson teacher and of the student should be based on creative cooperation. Only then students can think independently they get wills is brought up.
